Re: Byron Reed Collection
Omaha History Museum

Dear Mr. Newman:

In our telephone conversation several weeks ago I mentioned to you that our firm has been selected as the designers for the Byron Reed Collection Exhibit to be located at the Omaha History Museum.

In conversations with Mr. Leslie Elam, Director of the American Numismatic Society and Mr. Richard Doty of the Smithsonian Institute who we intend to use as our numismatic consultant on this project, I have been urged to visit your exhibit in the Mercantile Tower.

On Tuesday, 29 July 1986, I will be coming to St. Louis with the Director of the Omaha History Museum and would very much like to tour your exhibit. I will be calling in the next week to discuss our itinerary in more detail.

Thank you for your expressed interest in this project.

Sincerely,

BAHR VERMEER & HAECKER ARCHITECTS, LTD.

Mr. George Barker

Dear George:

I have enclosed two (2) copies of inventory of British Coins. These are to be added to other coin lists which we have sent you previously.

The summary to date is:

U. S. Coins (#1-1111)	$458,705.50
U. S. Patterns (P-1-P-335)	111,717.50
U. S. Supplementary Colonial (C-1-C-43)	576.50
U. S. Territorial Private Gold (T-1-T-52)	22,105.00
U. S. Commemorative (U.S.Com.-1 - U.S.Com.-35)	2,461.00
British Coins (E-1 - E-307)	8,474.75
	$604,040.25

As we discussed, you will provide premium quotations both with and without a deductible on the above total amount.

We are approximately one-fourth through with the inventory of the Byron Reed Collection in number of coins. However, it is my opinion that the above amount $604,040.25 represents at least eighty percent of the total dollar value.

A copy of this is being sent to Mr. George Richardson.

Sincerely,

Frank E. Gibson
Director.
